

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN HONOR OF LAWRENCE M. SULLIVAN, SR. PUBLIC DEFENDER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 13, 2009

Mr. CASTLE. Madam Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to celebrate and pay tribute to the almost 40 year career of Lawrence M. Sullivan, Sr., as the premier Public Defender of the State of Delaware. Larry's vision and immense belief in providing superb legal services to defendants who could otherwise not afford representation helped develop a Public Defenders Office that is the envy of states throughout our country.

Over the past 45 years, Larry has probably served in more capacities and for more Governors than any other Delawarean in the history of our state. While serving predominately on Gubernatorial commissions focused on issues dealing with corrections, courts, drugs, and other issues related to the legal profession, Larry also served as the Register of Wills for New Castle County, as a Mortgage Commissioner for New Castle County, a college professor of business and real estate law, and as a member of the Delaware Trial Lawyers Association, Delaware Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Larry has been recognized over the years for many achievements, including: Delaware's Outstanding Young Republican of the Year, Wilmington's Young Man of the Year, National Vice-Chairman of the Young Republican National Federation, President of the Active Young Republicans of Wilmington, recipient of the 2003 James P. Ford Award from the Criminal Justice Council of Delaware, 2005 Vision Award from the International Association of Forensic Nurses, 2006 Dorsey Award from the American Bar Association's Government and Public Sector Lawyers' Division, and the 2006 Reginald Heber Smith Award from the National Legal Aid & Defender Association. The awards Larry has received over the years are incapable of recognizing the extraordinary vision and leadership he provided to our state for his entire career.

While Larry may be stepping down as Delaware's Public Defender, we will all remember the indelible print he left on the judicial system and those individuals unable to afford private counsel. I express my heartfelt thanks to Larry for his many years of service, and most of all I thank him for being the individual who actually introduced me to the Republican Party and got me involved in public service. He is a very special friend of mine whose foresight helped many Delawareans.

MORTGAGE REFORM AND ANTI-PREDATORY LENDING ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 6, 2009

The House in committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 1728) to amend the Truth in Lending Act to reform consumer mortgage practices and provide accountability for such practices, to provide certain minimum standards for consumer mortgage loans, and for other purposes:

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Chair, I rise today in support of the Mortgage Reform and Anti-Predatory Lending Act, H.R. 1728, and to commend my colleagues BRAD MILLER, MEL WATT and Chairman FRANK for their leadership and hard work on this measure. I note that Rep. MILLER has worked on this matter for years, long before it became such a consuming issue. I urge my colleagues to support it.

A host of factors contributed to the economic crisis we have been suffering from over the past year, and it is fitting that the term "perfect storm" has so often been used to describe it. But the abusive and predatory practices of certain mortgage lenders certainly are among the factors that top the list. Somewhere along the way, prudent business judgment and careful long-term risk assessment were muscled out of the way by short-term profit seeking, with no thought of the impact that would have on the broader economy in the long run. The end result: the highest rate of home foreclosures in a quarter of a century.

Today, we take another important step in guiding our economy back towards its once stable footing, by prohibiting predatory lending and abusive lending practices, holding banks responsible for the home mortgages they issue, and protecting tenants whose residences go into foreclosure despite their own timely payment of rent.

One of the most prevalent abuses by subprime loan originators has been the practice in which they steer prospective borrowers towards loans that will provide originators with the highest near-term payoff, sometimes through fees the broker or loan officer collects by directing borrowers towards those loans. The Mortgage Reform and Anti-Predatory Lending Act would prohibit mortgage brokers and bank officers from directing borrowers towards loans that will ultimately become more expensive than they can afford, and would mandate that lenders only issue loans that the borrowers can repay. In addition, it will require loan originators to disclose to borrowers any compensation they receive in connection with the mortgage transaction.

One of the reasons loan originators have been unconcerned about issuing loans that they know borrowers might not be able to pay off is because loan originators in recent years have tended immediately to resell, or securitize, the mortgage loans they originate. Therefore, they only retained the risk associated with issuing an unstable loan for a brief period, and then the risk was transferred elsewhere. The Mortgage Reform and Anti-Predatory Lending Act calls for new regulations to require loan originators to retain at least a five percent interest in every loan they issue. Once they are required to retain some of the long-term risk of a borrower defaulting on the loan, the issuers should be expected to reinstate more prudent loan origination practices. In addition, the bill would hold the secondary mortgage market—the institutions that have been purchasing and securitizing mortgages—responsible for complying with the same standard when they purchase and package mortgages for resale.

And the Mortgage Reform and Anti-Predatory Lending Act also includes important protections for some of the most innocent and vulnerable victims of the foreclosure crisis—namely, tenants who reliably pay their rent on time, but wind up homeless when their landlords fail to do the same with their mortgage payments, and their properties go into foreclosure. The bill would require that tenants in such circumstances receive adequate advance notice and are provided with an opportunity to relocate before the foreclosure is completed.

The Mortgage Reform and Anti-Predatory Lending Act includes many important reforms and protections. I am pleased to support it and I urge my colleagues to do the same.

Mr. BERMAN. Madam Speaker, I am honored to pay tribute to my good friend, Moreen Blum, who was recently honored by the Sherman Oaks Democratic Club for her outstanding contributions to democratic politics in the San Fernando Valley. HONORING THE HEROISM OF
CHRIS LEVI
HON. PETER T. KING

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 13, 2009

Mr. KING of New York. Madam Speaker, poet and Capitol Tour Guide Albert C. Caswell has penned a poem in honor of Sp. E4 Chris Levi of The North Brigade 410/230 10th Mountain, from Holbrook Long Island. On March 17th 2008, in Sadr City Iraq, Chris lost both of his legs when an EFP struck him. Miraculously, he somehow cheated death. And now like all of our magnificent heroes of the military, who have given their most precious limbs, Chris begins his new fight. A fight that he is winning, winning with his great heart of faith and courage. As like Bob Dole, he too will be an inspiration to us all, for the rest of his life, as we witness the true meaning of the word Hero, all in our time.

10TH MOUNTAIN MEN

10th Mountain Men . . .
Are but those my friends, who will this our nation so defend . . .
Who but in times of war, all for country bore
. . . the greatest of all burdens, until the bitter end.
Brilliant Men, who run and fight . . .
Who climb mountains, knock down doors
. . . and go through walls to win that night . . .
Who with but their brave hearts so ignite,
the fight for freedom to so bring the light!
For well over the many years . . .
There have been so many magnificent heroes,
so dear!

Men like Chris Levi, and Bob Dole . . . who are but our Lord's greatest of all men endeared . . .
Are such Men to behold, who with but their fine hearts of gold . . .
With such great inspiration inspire us all so
. . . to so warm one's soul . . .
To carry with us as we grow old, in heart's of love so . . . such honor, for them we now so hold!
A New York Man . . . who so boldly in Long Island ran . . .
Who from Suffolk, without fear . . . with such great courage would so stand . . .
So stand, therein face of death . . . and then to return back home with almost nothing left . . .
Who gave up but his two fine strong legs . . .
As he won't moan, and he won't beg . . . As he starts his brilliant life all over again . . .
With but his fine heart and soul, showing us all in life . . . But where lies mankind's true gold.
As step by step . . .
The new pain and heartache, somehow he so accepts . . . as this hero is not done yet!
For He Will Reach Us, as He Will So Teach Us . . . as oh yes, as each of us . . . he Will So Bless . . .
But, with his fine heart of honor so . . .
He now so stands, with all of his band of brothers . . . such great respect he now so commands!
All of our hearts and souls, as he battles
through those winds so cold . . . making us all so understand.
That in the end, it's but only with our heart
we win!
Arms and legs surely we all need, but without a great heart . . . one cannot so breathe . . . to succeed!
To start all over again . . . Chris, you are America's fine son of faith and glory, bless you . . . Godspeed . . .
In life, there are so many Mountains we must climb!
But, only with such unshaken faith and courage, will one so find . . .
All of those fine things, that which so bring such tears to even the Angels' eyes . . .
In Chris Levi . . .
We so surely see, what the word hero so implies!
And if I ever have a son, I but hope and pray.
. . . That he will be like you this fine
one . . . Chris Levi . . .

IN HONOR OF PRESIDENT MA'S
FIRST ANNIVERSARY IN OFFICE
AS PRESIDENT OF TAIWAN
HON. KENNY MARCHANT

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 13, 2009

Mr. MARCHANT. Madam Speaker, Mr. Ma Ying-jeou was inaugurated as President of Republic of China (Taiwan) on May 20, 2008. During the last twelve months there has been a considerable reduction of tension across the Taiwan Strait and there have been productive talks between the two sides on issues such as direct airline flights, an economic accord protecting investments, more tourist visits by mainlanders to Taiwan.

President Ma has also been working closely with the U.S. government. The mutual relationship between our two countries is strong. We hope that the relations will grow even stronger in all areas, including trade, science and technology, educational exchange, military sales and Taiwan's participation in international agencies.

It is heartening to learn that Taiwan has been invited to attend this year's World Health Assembly (WHA) in Geneva, Switzerland from May 19 to May 27 as an observer. This is a breakthrough for the Taiwanese government; it is Taiwan's first participation in a formal U.N. activity since 1971, when the world body switched its recognition to mainland China.

In celebrating President Ma's first anniversary in office, I join my Congressional colleagues in hoping that Taiwan's participation in the WHA this May will lead to Taiwan's future successes in returning to other international organizations.

INTRODUCTION OF THE VETERANS GROUP LIFE INSURANCE IM-PROVEMENT ACT OF 2009
HON. STEVE BUYER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 13, 2009

Mr. BUYER. Madam Speaker, today I am introducing the Veterans' Group Life Insurance Improvement Act of 2009 which increases the amount of life insurance available to veterans. Veterans Group Life Insurance (VGLI) is administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs. The purpose of this program is to give veterans the option to convert their Servicemembers Group Life Insurance (SGLI) coverage that they carry when they are in service to a competitive life insurance product for them and their family in post-military life.

Under current law, veterans have up to one year to convert the amount of SGLI coverage they carry to VGLI. Many separating servicemembers are young and don't see the need to carry a large amount of life insurance coverage. However, as they get older and have a family, many of these servicemembers have expressed a desire to purchase additional coverage but are barred from doing so under current law.

The Veterans' Group Life Insurance Improvement Act of 2009 allows veterans to purchase up to $400,000 of VGLI coverage in $50,000 increments, every five years, until the age of 60. The costs of such increases in coverage will be offset by premiums veterans pay, so there is no direct cost to the government. This bill gives our veterans greater flexibility in their life insurance choices and I urge all members to co-sponsor and support this legislation.
